SHOWS

1 HAWAIIAN REEF TANK
View thousands of colorful creatures in this 300,000 gallon aquarium. A completely new exhibit that took five months to restore to the sparkling version you'll see today. Most visitors return again and again to this amazing display of marine life!

2 OCEAN SCIENCE THEATER
You'll love the antics of our talented dolphins as they show you their stuff in this open air amphitheater. A colony of Humboldt penguins bumble along behind their pudgy leader "Fat Fred."

3 WHALER'S COVE SHOW
Star of the show "Ianui," a 1500-pound false killer whale, and a team of dolphins recreate the whaling days of old Hawaii. The 5/8 scale replica whaling ship Essex lies permanently anchored in this spectacular oceanside lagoon.

EXHIBITS

4 SEA LION FEEDING POOL
A breeding colony of sea lions soak up the sun and wait for herring handouts. Guests may purchase fish at the Sea Lion Exhibit following each Whaler's Cove show. Several babies are born in the pool each year, in full view of cheering park guests!

5 LEEWARD ISLES
This lovely location offers great photo opportunities of Hawaii's ocean birds. Red and brown-footed boobies, gooney birds, and iwa birds march around and pose just for you!

6 TURTLE LAGOON
Several species of sea turtles flap their flippers in this beautiful exhibit. And 425 turtle eggs hatched last year, setting a park record!

7 WHALER'S MUSEUM
The skeletal system of a giant whale hangs overhead as park guests enjoy the largest collection of whaling artifacts and scrimshaw in the Pacific. It's free!

8 ROCKY SHORES EXHIBIT
Dramatic new exhibit, located next to the Hawaiian Reef Tank. Designed to reproduce the conditions of the intertidal zone, with its pounding surf, wave-swept rocks and quiet pools, guests are able to view close up the creatures that inhabit our rocky shorelines.

Every 90 seconds, approximately 600 gallons of water is dropped into the exhibit, creating a dynamic surging effect.

9 SHARK GALLERY
An impressive collection of shark jaws, products that include shark by-products; photography and technical information on the various species of sharks found in Hawaii—an all-new exhibit that is sure to impress!

During the day, see all these exciting shows and exhibits!

Behind-The-Scenes Tours

Go behind the scenes at Sea Life Park and experience first-hand the secret backstage goings on. The tours are offered several times during the day and only sixteen lucky persons can participate at one time.

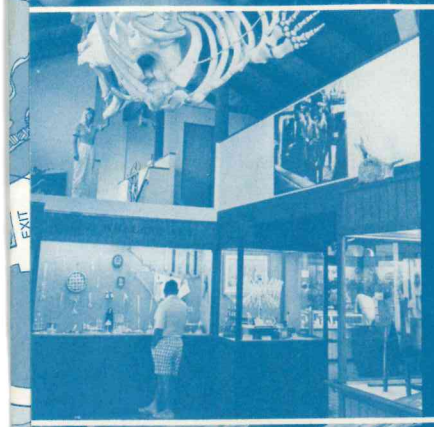
Our successful marine mammal breeding program has resulted in spectacular results. A hybrid animal—mother is a dolphin and dad is a whale—can only be viewed on the Behind-The-Scenes Tour. The wholphin will celebrate its second birthday this year and is the only animal of its kind in captivity. PLUS, our tropical false killer whale "Makapuu" gave birth to a calf recently and neither mother or baby will be seen by the general public for some time. But you can!

Tours depart at 9:45, 10:45, 11:45, 1:45 and 3:45 each day. Cost of the tour is only $1.75 for adults, $1 for juniors and keikis are $.50—not including the general admission.

Ask at the Sea Life Park gatehouse, when you can go on the next "Behind-The-Scenes Tours." You'll be amazed!

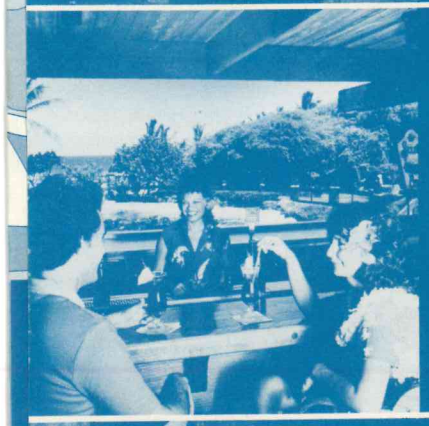
MINI LECTURES

Informative mini-lectures are scheduled throughout the day. Please check the schedule and map on the reverse for times and locations.



THE PACIFIC WHALING MUSEUM

The Museum presents an outstanding collection of authentic scrimshaw and historical artifacts and is free to park guests and the public.



THE GALLEY RESTAURANT

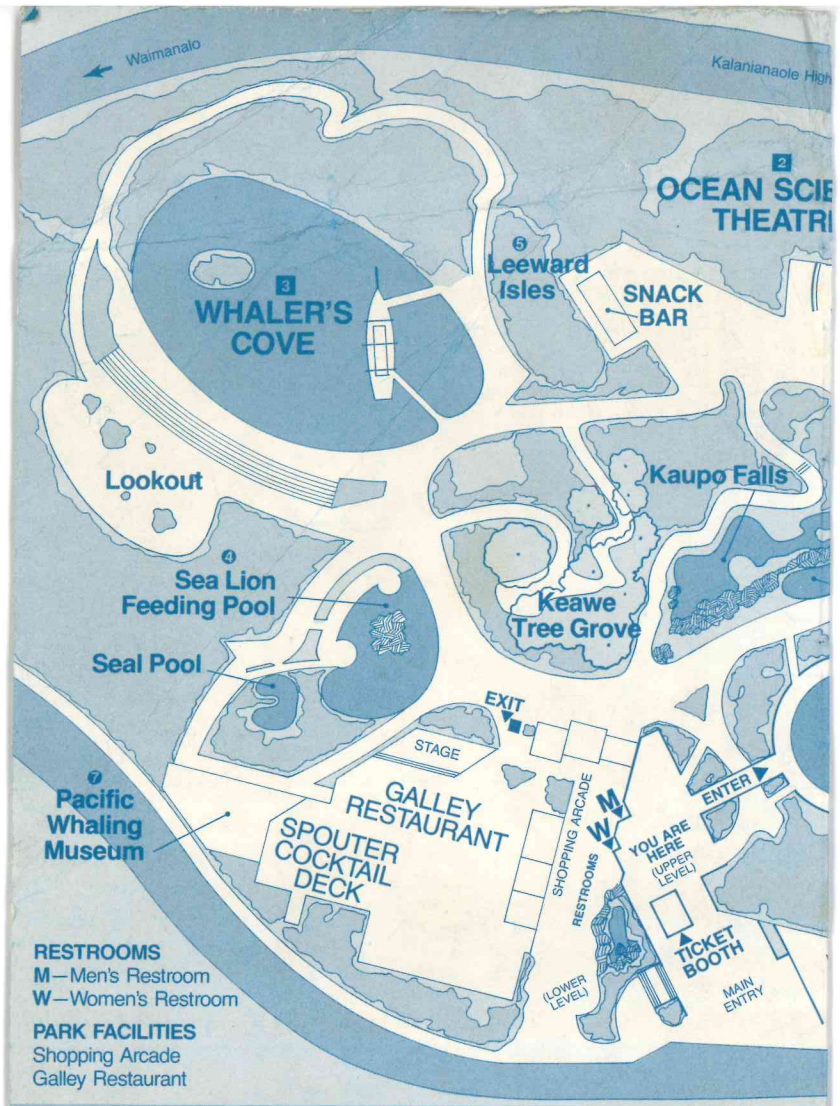
Hungry? Thirsty? The Galley Restaurant is the perfect stop for lunch. Fast-moving buffet offers great hot meals, hamburgers, soft drinks and desserts. Or sip an icy Mai Tai or beer at the picturesque Spouter Deck.

THE SEA CHEST GIFT SHOP

Remember your friends at home or treat yourself to a muumuu or island T-shirt. Plan a stop at the Sea Chest Gift Shop and jewelry shops. You'll like the friendly people at our Shopping Arcade!

SHARK GALLERY

Learn all about Hawaii's sharks, their fascinating history in the islands and whether or not you have reason to worry about your toes while swimming in our warm waters!



During the day, see all these exciting shows and exhibits!
